

1950
Excerpts of talk by Roy E. Norris, at CASA ITALIANA,
COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY,
New York, N. Y.
December 19, 1960

ESSENTIAL DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE URBAN LEAGUE and the
NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE

* * *

Description of Urban League.

Description of N.A.A.C.P.

Both working towards same general objective -- the freedom and recognition, individuals on the basis of their individual innate worth, and not in terms of their race, color, creed, national origin, social or economic status.

126 other organizations working in their respective areas of competence, toward this same general objective also.

Problem is a serious one -- perhaps the most serious of our day. The world is slowly beginning to suspect, if not realize, that the inequality posited among people by other people with the means of so doing, or of continuing such inequalities is the basic root of world strife and conflicts.

Today we are assailed by an ideology that reduces this basic problem to one of class conflict--the inevitable clash of class with class. The Communist doctrines distinguish class from class and point to their existence as a driving reason for acceptance of Communism.

However, we don't accept this. There is more to the problem than a matter of class. Moreover, there is a vast difference in the way we would